

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

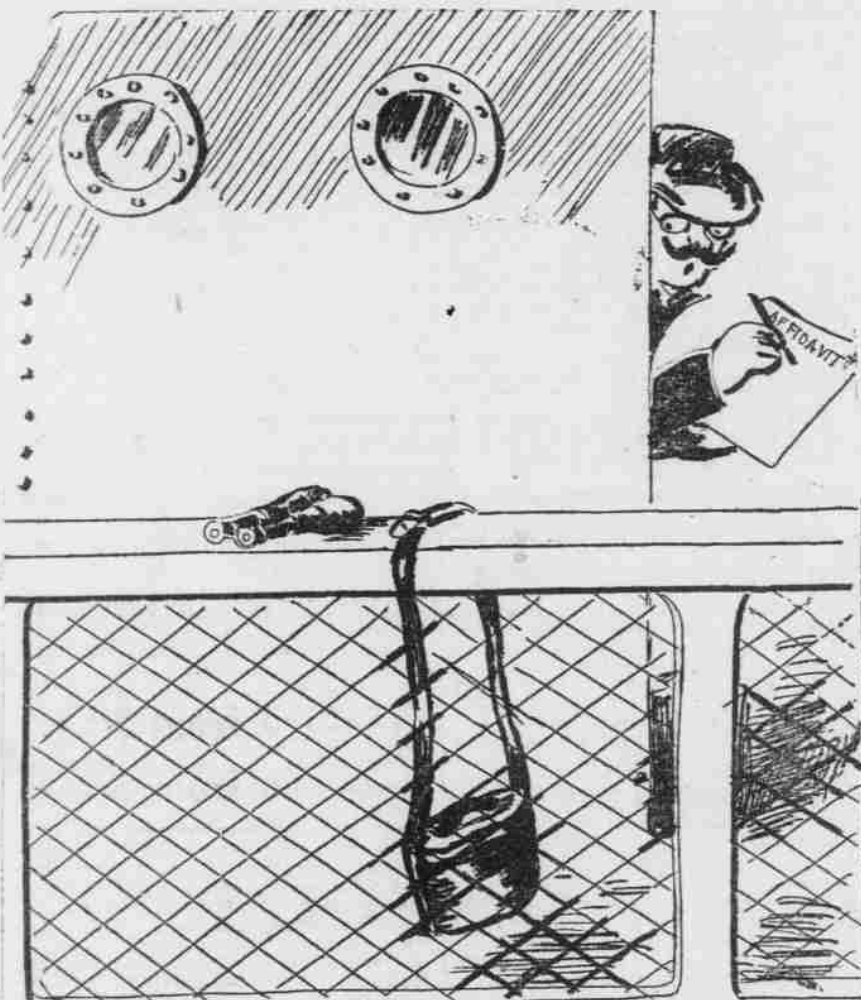

GOING UP! —Philadelphia Public Ledger

YOU CAN'T ASPHYXIATE HIM —Chicago News

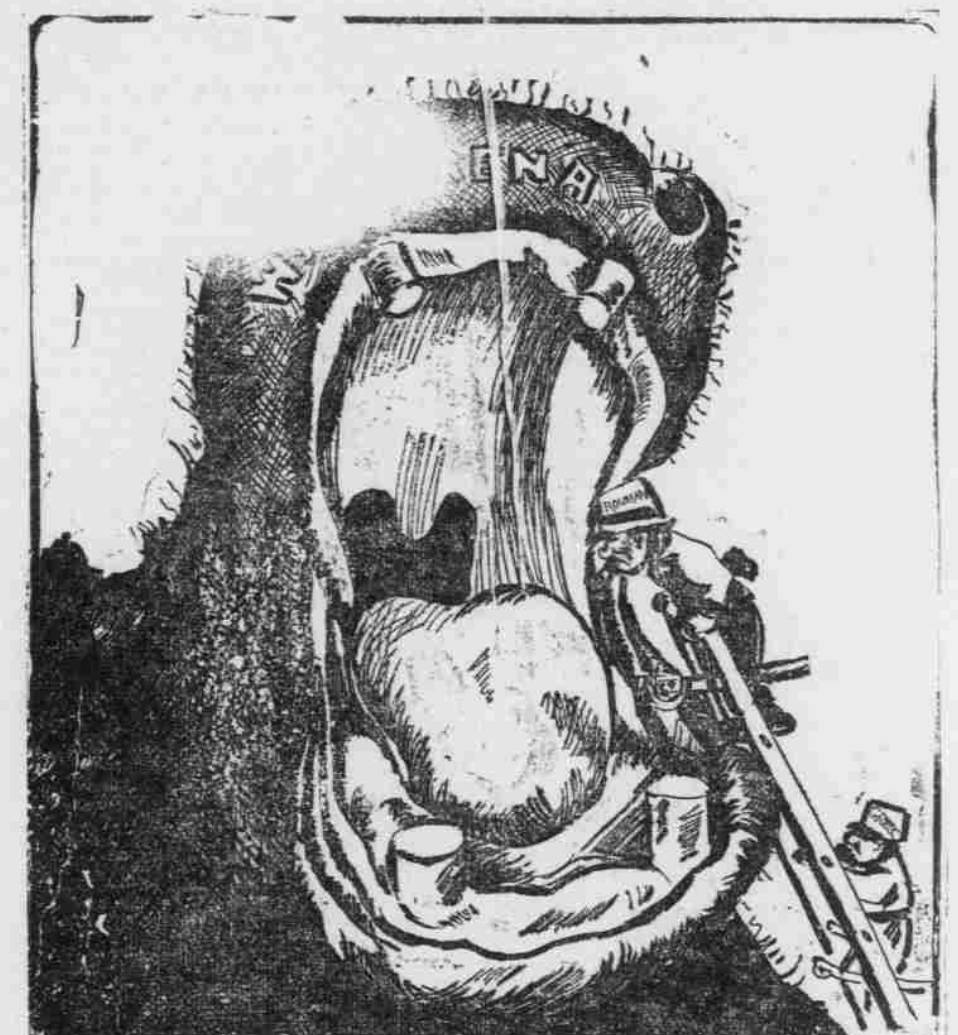

THE GERMAN CONTROVERSY —Columbus Dispatch

THE STARBOARD BATTERY! —Brooklyn Eagle

FINAL NOTICE —Baltimore American

THE DOOR'S WIDE OPEN AND NOBODY'S ON THE GATE —Cleveland Plain Dealer

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

GRISWOLD

J. T. Kent, Miss Serena Peterson of New York, Miss Laura Perkins, Miss Alice Denison of Groton and Mrs. Susan Morey of Danvers were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Montgomery.

Mrs. J. C. Edmond of Waterbury and Mrs. Etta Lewis of Willimantic were visitors at Mrs. W. A. Edmond's last week.

Mrs. C. F. Morgan, who was ill, is improving.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. George Geor of Hopeville Wednesday. A good number were present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Terry and T. Fred Edmond, started Thursday morning for Waterbury for a few days' visit, making the trip by automobile.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Frank Zedron has returned to White Oak farm, where he intends to spend the summer.

William H. Dawley, who was in a critical condition last week, has so far improved that he can sit up.

Charles Tanner and Miss Phoebe Tanner made a business trip to Norwich Tuesday.

Hiroce Perkins was in Plainfield Tuesday.

Mrs. A. G. Brown and daughter, Miss Susie Brown, went to Norwich recently.

BOZRAH

Dr. and Mrs. Edward G. Fox and son Kenneth, were visitors over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Lathrop, making the trip in the doctor's new eight cylinder car.

Henry Clark killed a large red snake near his home recently.

Rev. and Mrs. B. D. Remington of Colchester have been spending a part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Bishop.

Schools in town close this week for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Abel and daughter were callers Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. William Long's, making the trip in their new touring car.

GLASGO

Fourteen Attend Meeting of Ladies' Aid Society—Treat for School Children.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kinney, also D. S. Guile and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sterry Kinney.

Mrs. Palmer was the guest the first of the week of her sister, who lives in Norwich.

Floyd Young of Sterling was a visitor Sunday at W. G. Burdick's.

Fourteen at Meeting.

There were fourteen at the Ladies' Aid society meeting with Mrs. R. H. Young, Wednesday afternoon. The next meeting in two weeks will be at the home of Mrs. F. J. Gustafson. The ladies are planning a strawberry festival.

School in the eighth district in the primary room closed Friday for the summer vacation. The teacher served ice cream and cake to the children. The senior room will close next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Burton were Sunday visitors at Frank Burton's in the north part of the town.

Bertie Irons and Miss Emma Burton

NORTH STONINGTON

Home and School Association Holds Interesting Session—Wheeler School Commencement Next Friday.

The Home and School association held its final meeting for this season in Library hall, Tuesday evening, with a large attendance. Rev. Lucian Drury, vice president, presided. Miss Besie West, teacher in District No. 5, read a paper on prominent men who have gone out from North Stonington. A letter from Judge S. O. Prentice, whose first schooling was obtained in this town, was read. There was a spelling match by pupils from different schools. Agnes Chapman of District No. 6 carried off the honors among the grammar pupils and Constance Pendleton of the village school among the primary pupils. John L. York made an address. Mrs. Belle Holcomb Johnson of Hartford, inspector of libraries, gave an interesting address on the schoolhouses of the state, which was illustrated by stereoscopic views.

Exchange Pupils.

Rev. O. D. Fisher preached in Ledyard Sunday morning in exchange with Rev. G. F. Goodenough. Mr. Fisher was accompanied to Ledyard by Governor H. Brown.

Call Accepted.

Albert L. Townsend has accepted a call to the pastorate, for six months, extended to him by the Third Baptist church. Mr. Townsend is a student in Boston university and is not yet ordained. For the past year he has been preaching in Voluntown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Gray and Mrs. D. P. Chapman have been appointed delegates from the Third Baptist church to the Stonington Union association. Rev. Lucian Drury, pastor emeritus, will also be a delegate ex-officio.

Mrs. T. P. Norman attended the funeral of a cousin in Noank Sunday.

Mrs. D. P. Chapman and Mrs. Charles C. Gray were guests of Mrs. Clarence H. Davis, Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles B. Caswell, who has been seriously ill, is better.

The town schools, except those which have lost time to make up, closed Friday.

SHUNOC

Second Baptist Church Appoints Delegates to Convention—Funeral of Charles Palmer.

The Second Baptist church has chosen Mrs. John M. Collins, Miss E. Louise Merrill and Miss Flora A. York delegates to the Stonington Baptist Union to be held at Mystic, Wednesday and Thursday, June 16 and 17.

Miss Ella J. Wheeler attended services Sunday morning at North Stonington village.

Charles Palmer's Funeral.

The funeral of Charles Palmer was held in the Second Baptist church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There was a large attendance and Rev. John M. Collins officiated. There were beautiful flowers. The bearers were Judge C. C. Gray, George O. Brown, Charles A. and Clarence E. Palmer. Burial was in the Peabody cemetery. The deceased was 60 years of age and died after a brief illness. He was the son of the late Gersham Palmer. One brother survives, Julius Palmer, of Westerly.

Rev. Albert L. Townsend spoke in the Third Baptist church, Sunday morning and evening.

Birthday Party.

Myrtle Bennett had a birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman H. Bennett, Saturday evening. Many of her young friends were present and many nice gifts were received.

Mrs. Mary A. Miller is seriously ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Culver.

Rain is much needed.

GOSHEN

Breezy Hill Farm Sold—Picnic and Entertainment at Close of Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and daughter, Mrs. George K. Payne, of Portland, were guests of friends here Monday. The trip was made in Mrs. Payne's new touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watrous and daughter, Miss Marion Watrous, from Alabama, are guests at the home of W. I. Mott.

Several people thought they would try their luck spearing fish in the Yantic river Saturday night. With torches and spears they started out, and in a very short time they had captured a good number of eels and suckers, the largest weighing over three pounds.

Mrs. John Hillom and daughter, Mrs. Ethel Winchester, of Norwich Town, have been spending a number of days at Mrs. Hillom's home on Goshen Hill.

Real Estate Sale.

Mrs. John Hillom has sold her place, Breezy Hill farm, and is to move to New Hampshire.

Close of Schools.

Schools in Districts No. 9 and 10 closed for the summer vacation this week. A school picnic and entertainment were two closing features that were greatly enjoyed by the pupils, teachers and parents. Miss Beato Randall taught in the 9th district, Miss Alice Mahoney in District No. 10.

Archie Walkingshaw, who has been spending some weeks with relatives here, has returned to Chicopee Falls, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lyman of Columbia were recent visitors with friends in this place.

Harry Palmer and Florence Taylor were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Poote, of New London.

Mrs. Percy Alden and daughter, of Willimantic, Mass., spent a day recently with the former's sister, Mrs. Ernest Taylor.

Miss Edith Leffingwell, a graduate of the Baptist Institute for Christian Workers, Philadelphia, returned to her home Thursday for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Leffingwell and daughters Ida, Nola and Louis were calling on friends in this place Sunday.

GARDNER LAKE

Mrs. Julia Cooper Over 80, Walks to Norwich — Orrin Gardner Dead.

Miss Grace Lathrop of Montville was a week-end guest at her home here.

James Mahoney of Montville has been helping Henry Harris at the Burchard-Manwarring cottage.

Wellesley Hannev was numbered in the graduating class of the Salem school. The exercises were held at the Grange hall, Salem, Friday, June 11th.

Walked to Norwich.

Mrs. Julia Cooper, walked from her home here to Norwich to visit her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Button. Mrs. Cooper made an early start keeping her intentions to herself. She passed her eightieth birthday in May.

Mrs. S. A. Dolbeare is ill.

Orrin Gardner Dead.

Word was received here Tuesday of the death of Orrin Gardner at Yantic, to which he moved from here about two years ago. Mr. Gardner was well and favorably known in this place.

Charles M. Winchester sustained a painful injury to his right shoulder and side while working on the Burchard-Manwarring cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hopkins and two daughters, Marietta and Josephine of Brooklyn, N. Y., have opened their cottage in Spring Grove for the season.

At the Congregational church Sunday, the pastor, Rev. C. L. French spoke from Luke 16:7-8.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schofield, Raymond Schofield and Miss Florence Olin motored Sunday to Mansfield Center, where they were guests of Miss Olin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Olin.

Mrs. Isaac Lamb and little daughter of Groton are spending the week at the home of Mrs. Lamb's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rogers are at Sound View for a week.

Mrs. Ella Chapel returned home on Saturday from a few days spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Parker, of East Great Plain.

STAFFORDVILLE

Hope Mill May Be Sold—New York Man May Use It For Button Factory.

There is much interest manifested in the result of the negotiations going on for the sale of the Hope mill of Staffordville, the purchase of which is being seriously considered by a New York man, as a place in which to manufacture pearl buttons. This mill is said to meet his requirements.

Mrs. Edna Prentice returned to her home in Worcester, Mass., Tuesday, after spending a week with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hanner. Mrs. Hanner accompanied her niece Tuesday to make a lengthy visit with relatives in Worcester.

Rev. Marion H. Jones of Canterbury visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller recently.

Miss Isabelle Bowden has been confined to her home for several weeks with a badly sprained ankle.

Miss Welsh of Philadelphia, Pa., has been the guest of Mrs. Philo West.

Mrs. Stella Gregory of Willimantic was the guest of Mrs. Clarence White and Mrs. L. Morrell recently.

HAMBURG

Miss Jennie Parker returned from Hartford last week.

Miss Elizabeth Ely is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. B. Sterling in Windsor Locks.

Mrs. John Tiffany attended the graduation of her cousin, Reginald Lord, at Suffield.

Mrs. Laurence Reynolds is caring for Mrs. L. O. Gates, who is ill.

Miss Alma Holmes, who is training at Middletown, N. Y. hospital, is home for a short time.

Miss Mabel Walsh of New London was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Tiffany and daughter, Mrs. Wood's, were calling on relatives in Niantic, Wednesday, and attended the Lee celebration.

Mrs. Mary Fosdick was a guest at Ashlawn farm the past week.

The birthday society met with Mrs. Harding, Thursday.

Professor Bassett and family of Hartford have opened their summer home, "Prospect" on Lord's Hill.

In the Indian army all orders are given in English.